Washington, D.C. 20554Re: CC Docket No. 92-105 - The Use of N11 Codes and Other Abbreviated Dialing Arrangements

Dear Ms. Levitz:

During the pleading cycles of the above docket, SWBT presented many arguments explaining why the assignment of N11 codes to individual customers, as proposed by the Commission, is not in the public interest. SWBT remains opposed to any Commission action which requires the assignment of N11 codes to individual customers.

In its filings in this docket, SWBT indicated that the Commission should instead consider some of the other alternatives to the assignment of N11 codes that were proposed by various parties. One alternative mentioned during this docket involved the use of the "555" code. During the pleading cycles, SWBT indicated that the "555" alternative appeared to have merit, however, it needed more time to research this alternative.

The purpose of this correspondence is to inform you that SWBT continues to study the marketing, billing and network issues related to the "555" offering while continuing to
